

Qiaolin XU (Shirleen)

Early Childhood Educator

shirleenxql@gmail.com | www.xuqiaolin.com

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Early childhood educator with documented K3 classroom experience, a Master of Education in Early Childhood Education, native Mandarin proficiency, and a planned U.S. Master of Arts in Teaching and teaching licensure pathway.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Kindergarten Teacher | Qicai Kindergarten

Sep 2021 - Jun 2023

- Taught language development and social studies to children in a K3 kindergarten class.
- Assisted the lead teacher with classroom management, student supervision, and the implementation of classroom activities.

Academic Affairs Officer / Part-time Lecturer | Chongqing Institute of Foreign Studies

Jun 2015 - Jan 2018

- Coordinated undergraduate academic operations, including course scheduling, classroom allocation, examination administration, and academic timetable management.

EDUCATION

Master of Education in Early Childhood Education | The Education University of Hong Kong

Aug 2014 - May 2015

Bachelor of Management in Public Affairs Management | Changzhou University

Sep 2010 - Jun 2014

LANGUAGES AND ASSESSMENTS

Mandarin: Native speaker | Putonghua Shuiping Ceshi, Grade 2 Level A

English: Duolingo English Test, overall score 120

- Chinese (Mandarin): World Language, Praxis 5665, reported score 196
- Elementary Education: Mathematics CKT, Praxis 7813, reported score 175
- Special Education: Foundational Knowledge, Praxis 5355, reported score 166

These values are reported assessment scores. Teaching licensure remains part of the planned U.S. professional pathway.

VOLUNTEER SERVICE

Parent Volunteer | Tai Po Baptist Kindergarten

Sep 2023 - May 2024

Volunteer | 38th Hong Kong Special Olympics Indoor Rowing Competition

Oct 2014

PLANNED PROFESSIONAL PATHWAY

U.S. Master of Arts in Teaching study and teaching licensure. Program, enrollment, and licensure details will be updated when formally confirmed.